

Consumer eSignature Disclosure

E-Sign - Online

This electronic signature service is a convenient, authorized method of collecting signatures and is provided on behalf of your tax return preparer, "sending party," who is requesting electronic signatures from you. You are not required to sign documents electronically.

If you do not want to conduct business or sign documents electronically, or if you wish to withdraw your consent to conduct business or sign documents electronically at a later time, contact the "sending party" by telephone, postal mail, or email. You can request paper copies of documents from the "sending party" instead.

By participating in electronic signing, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this Consumer eSignature Disclosure, and you are consenting to conduct business and sign documents electronically.
